An assiduous and very intelligent student, I am currently in my final year at the University of Business and Technology - UBT in Pristina. I am a hard-working, ambitious individual who has a passion for programming, with broad skills in Web Development and I am adept at handling multiple tasks on a daily basis competently and at working well under pressure. I have excellent communication skills, which allows me to communicate effectively with a broad spectrum of people. Eager to absorb as much knowledge and insight as possible in the pursuance of my goal. I see an industry position where I can put my knowledge into practice, I'm willing to help grow the company.

I am a highly competent web developer with a proven track record in web design, software and database management. I have solid technical skills in Asp.Net Core and MS SQL along with other technologies like Node and Express js, Vue js, React js, MongoDB, Java and OOP. I am eager to be challenged in order to grow and further improve my IT skills. My greatest passion in life is using my technical know-how to benefit other people and organizations.
